Bone marrow is the body's source of immune system cells that HIV infects and it's a likely place to look for HIV's reservoirs.

If the client is eligible for PEP, the physician will explain the treatment, potential side effects and importance of adhering to the full 28-day prescription.