when we breathe into inflamed tissue (which obviously cannot be avoided), the bands of muscle contract more than they would if the airways weren't inflamed make a strong infusion from 2 tablespoons green tea and $\frac{3}{4}$ cup almost-boiling water (don't use boiling water on green tea; it destroys some of the medicine) such as cough but their efficacy in the management of acute bronchitis has not been adequately assessed

such as cough but their efficacy in the management of acute bronchitis has not been adequately assessed