we finally come together and address climate change, poverty, starvation, disease, and resource use as a species.

if north dakota can start refineries than the pipeline could go to north dakota refineries and essentially stop soon after to crosses the canadian border into the united states.

his concept, however, was largely ignored, especially in this country